

Elena Flores is a performing artist and songwriter mesmerizing audiences with her enchanting vocals and onstage persona. Earning a Bachelor of Music from Shenandoah University and Master of Music from UNC-Greensboro in Vocal Performance, Elena seamlessly blends her classical roots with her passion for mainstream music. While based in North Carolina, Elena performed with bands and as a solo artist in the Piedmont Triad music scene. Her diverse repertoire includes original compositions and genres ranging from Classic Oldies and Pop to Broadway, Jazz, and Opera. She was recently the featured artist for the North Charleston POPS! 13th season opening concert, Bewitched feat. Elena Flores, performing 9 diverse pieces to showcase her versatile artistry. One of Elena's current projects, Diva de la Retro, is a soulful tribute to timeless American Standards. In addition to her live performances, Elena is a recording artist. Her original music highlights her unique style, dynamic range, and emotional delivery. As a true crossover artist, she is committed to delivering compelling musical experiences that resonate with every performance.
